

O MY GOD

O my God hear the prayer of a faithful soul,

but one who's so small in the world.

Reach your hands to the hearts of ones who need,

hope of a life yet to come.

O my God, O my God,

it's a struggle in life,

to bring justice and kindness and peace. (x2)

We pray to find the way of Your rule,

to know Your divine mastermind.

Touch your hands to the heads of fools such as we,

that we live in harmony in You.

O my God, O my God. . . . (x2)
