

SEARCHING FOR MY GOD

Searching for my God, to tell me what to do.

But the Author of the world puts the Name in front of you.

Shabbos God take my name and give me yours.

We're the One, we're the One, we're the One,

the only One. (x2)

The name we're going to be, is what we bring the world to see,

justice, truth, and compassion, freedom from misery.

Shabbos God take my name and give me yours.

We're the One, we're the One, we're the One,

the only One. (x2)

It's a name we'll never know, one we'll only help to bring.

But the joy is in the doing, rarely in the end to be gained.

Shabbos God take my name and give me yours.

We're the One, we're the One, we're the One,

the only One. (x2)
